THE NEED FOR REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP IN AGRICULTURE

The agriculture industry is critical to the country's well being and the economy. The challenge? Significant talent shortages are slowing employers' efforts to expand, innovate, and excel. Among these challenges:

- ▶ An aging workforce of highly skilled and experienced workers.
- ▶ Expanding knowledge of rewarding, long-term agriculture career pathways to those entering the workforce.
- ▶ Keeping pace with the latest technology trends.

These workforce challenges undermine productivity and profitability. The good news? There is a proven solution that can be integrated into existing training and workforce development strategies to meet critical talent challenges: Registered Apprenticeship.

REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP: AGRICULTURE EMPLOYERS' TALENT DEVELOPMENT SOLUTION

Employers in the agriculture sector across the U.S. and around the world use the Registered Apprenticeship training model to recruit, train, and retain workers with the right skills. Registered Apprenticeship has been the most effective training model for enhancing business performance and competitiveness.

WHAT IS REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP?

Registered Apprenticeship is an industry-driven, high-quality career pathway where employers can develop and prepare their future workforce, and individuals can obtain paid work experience, receive progressive wage increases, classroom instruction, and a portable, nationally-recognized credential. Registered Apprenticeships are industry-vetted and approved and validated by the U.S. Department of Labor or a State Apprenticeship Agency.

HOW CAN REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP HELP COMPANIES?

Agriculture employers realize many benefits from implementing Registered Apprenticeship programs. Through Registered Apprenticeship, employers will:

- ▶ Vet workers and instill the company's culture.
- ▶ Recruit and develop a diverse and highly skilled workforce.
- ▶ Improve productivity and profitability.
- ▶ Reduce turnover, improve loyalty, and retain top talent.
- ▶ Demonstrate investment in the community.
