

Proclamation

Offices of the Mayors & County Judge

WHEREAS, National Apprenticeship Week is celebrating its ninth anniversary of raising awareness of the vital role apprenticeships provide in creating a qualified and highly skilled workforce in diverse industries across the nation; and

WHEREAS, the above cities are a community which acknowledges that registered apprenticeships have played an important role throughout our nation's history over the last 80 years; and

WHEREAS, the advancement and well-being of the United States of America depends upon the continued development of skilled workers in their chosen fields; and

WHEREAS, there are more job openings than job seekers in the United States, and the expansion of apprenticeships will help bridge the skills gap to fill these jobs; and

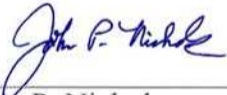

WHEREAS, we recognize that the City Of College Station, City of Bryan, Britt Rice Electric. L.P. and Daily Electric and the Federal Prison Camp are recognized as apprenticeship programs registered in our area.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John P. Nichols, Mayor of College Station, Texas, and I, Bobby Gutierrez, Mayor of Bryan, Texas, and I, Duane Peters, Brazos County Judge, and on behalf of our respective councils and commissioners court, do hereby declare and proclaim November 13 – 19, 2023 as

NATIONAL APPRENTICESHIP WEEK

And we urge every individual to acknowledge and recognize the apprenticeships in our community and their commitment to make their organizations, families, community, country, or world a better place.
