

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

WHEREAS, Vermont's employers, associations, educational institutions, and communities are celebrating the importance of Registered Apprenticeships on April 30, 2025; and

WHEREAS, Vermont recognizes Apprenticeship Day as an event celebrating the benefits of Registered Apprenticeships as a pathway to career advancement, personal growth, and professional development; and

WHEREAS, the advancement and well-being of Vermont depends upon its ability to expand opportunities in its workforce that are inclusive of individuals who have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by persistent poverty and inequality in their chosen fields; and

WHEREAS, Registered Apprenticeship programs enable employers to develop and train their future workforce while offering career seekers affordable paths to secure high-paying jobs; and

WHEREAS, Registered Apprenticeship programs are uniquely able to meet the changing demands of the Vermont economy and provide a path for all qualified individuals, including women and gender expansive individuals, youth, people of color, rural communities, justice-involved individuals, and individuals with disabilities, to become Registered Apprentices and contribute to America's industries; and

WHEREAS, Vermont proudly boasts a thriving community of approximately 1,700 Registered Apprentices who contribute significantly to the state's economy, workforce, and community development; and

WHEREAS, Vermont actively supports initiatives that widen the opportunities for individuals to embark on rewarding Registered Apprenticeship pathways, understanding these programs enrich both individuals and the broader community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby proclaim the 30th day of April, 2025 as

in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 29th day of April, A.D. 2025.

Philip B. Scott
