

National Apprenticeship Day Proclamation for Tiny Rebels Childcare LLC

WHEREAS, apprenticeships offer meaningful, hands-on learning opportunities that prepare individuals for fulfilling careers while addressing workforce needs across many industries, including early childhood education; and

WHEREAS, Tiny Rebels Childcare LLC is proud to be a champion of apprenticeship, creating pathways for aspiring early childhood educators to develop the skills, knowledge, and confidence needed to provide quality care and learning experiences for our youngest community members; and

WHEREAS, through partnership with Michigan Works! Region 7B, we are actively working to support and expand Registered Apprenticeship Programs that provide local residents with earn-while-you-learn opportunities and clear career advancement in the childcare field; and

WHEREAS, apprenticeships are a vital tool in building a strong, professional, and passionate early childhood workforce—one that supports working families, strengthens our communities, and invests in the future of our children; and

WHEREAS, on this day, we proudly recognize the apprentices who are stepping into this essential field, the mentors who guide them, and the community organizations and agencies who stand behind them;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Erika Krumm, Owner and Founder of Tiny Rebels Childcare LLC, do hereby proclaim:

4/30/2025 as National Apprenticeship Day at Tiny Rebels Childcare LLC, and encourage continued collaboration, investment, and recognition of apprenticeship as a key driver of growth, excellence, and opportunity in the early childhood sector and beyond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I set my hand to this proclamation with gratitude and excitement for the future of childcare professionals in our region.

Signed,

Erika Krumm
