

American Apprenticeship Initiative Grant Award Summaries

South Seattle College – Seattle, WA

South Seattle College was awarded a $4.8 million grant to fund the Partnership for Advanced Technology Apprenticeships in Manufacturing and Marine Engineering project (PATAM). It will serve at least 1,000 workers in the State of WA by creating three new and expanding on 12 existing apprenticeship programs in the Advanced Manufacturing and Maritime sectors.