“Through our Certified Insurance Apprenticeship Program, Zurich is attracting new and diverse talent to insurance and developing these professionals to deliver for our customers now and into the future. We started from the successful Swiss “learn and earn” model of apprenticeship and adapted it to the dynamic U.S. marketplace.”

WHAT IS APPRENTICESHIP?

Apprenticeship is an industry-driven, high-quality career pathway where employers can develop and prepare their future workforce, and individuals can obtain paid work experience, classroom instruction, and a nationally-recognized, portable credential. Employers can choose to register their programs with the U.S. Department of Labor to show prospective job seekers that their apprenticeship program meets national quality standards.
