Introduction

Thank you for hosting a National Apprenticeship Week event! Your participation will highlight the impact apprenticeship programs have on addressing the U.S. skills gap and preparing the American workforce for the jobs of today and tomorrow.

This toolkit includes tips, templates, and guidance for promoting your event to media, the public, and potential event attendees. If you have any questions or need any help along the way, please email us at NAW@dol.gov.

Media & Publicity

This section provides resources and information to get local media coverage for your NAW event. Local media coverage will enable you to tell the public and internal and external stakeholders who you are, what you're doing, and why they should attend your event.

How to Use Local Media to Promote Your Event

There are three key elements to building a media story:

1. Media List
2. Media Pitches & Media Alerts
3. Creative Assets

Media List

As a first step, you'll need to create a media list. A media list includes the reporter's name, email address, outlet name, and relevant notes. Here are the steps to building a media list:

1. Compile a list of local newspapers, magazines, websites, blogs, radio, and television stations.
2. Create a spreadsheet that includes a contact person, phone number, and email address for each outlet. See if anyone has done a story about your organization – or apprenticeship – in the past.
3. Call each outlet to ask for these details to ensure you do not have outdated information
 - Newspapers: When possible, ask for the contact who covers local events, careers, and/or business
 - Magazines: Ask for the local event, business, or career writer
 - Radio: Ask for the news director
 - TV: Ask for the assignment desk or the dayside producer

Pitching

Pitches are short emails that describe something new and interesting in order to gauge a reporter's interest in writing about it for a story online, in print, or on TV. Pitches are personalized to each reporter's beat/interest areas and include important details about your event.

Use the pitch template below as a starting point and update the [highlighted areas] with relevant information. This format is primarily used for print media.

To reach local television affiliates, you should use a slightly different format called a media alert. This format helps highlight specific visuals that may be available for camera crews.

Creative Assets

When possible, it's always a great idea to provide images and videos to reporters when pitching to help them visually tell the story. You should avoid attaching images to pitches as this could cause the emails to get caught in spam folders. Instead, you can sign up for a free file sharing service (e.g., Dropbox, Google Drive) and share a link to relevant images and videos. Examples to include:

- NAW logo (available here)
- Your organization's logo
- Real photos of your apprentices
- Real photos of your facilities

Press Release

A press release is another effective method to gain media attention for your event. A press release can be distributed through a wire service, shared with local media in your pitch, posted on company websites, and sent to key stakeholders. Use the template below as a guide to develop your own press release that is customized to your organization and industry.
