

Abstract

State Apprenticeship Expansion Formula Funding Opportunity

1. Lead Applicant / Organization Name (Base Funding): Puerto Rico Department of Economic Development and Commerce

2. Lead Applicant entity type: State agency

3. Lead Applicant city and state: San Juan, Puerto Rico

4. Funding Option: Base Formula Funding $357,623.00

5. Project Title: Apprenticeship PR- Starting a new era of skill workers

6. Funding Amount Requested: $357,623.00

7. Number of apprentices enrolled in RAPs during the life of the grant: 500

8. Population to served: women, youth IS and OS, veterans, persons with functional diversity, and long-term unemployment adults

9. Required Partners	10. Optional Partners
PR Apprenticeship office operates within the Workforce Development Program (PDL for the acronym in Spanish) of the Puerto Rico Department of Economic Development and Commerce	Name	Organization Type
	Auxiliary Secretariat for Customer Services & Business Development	State Secretariat in the PR Department of Economic Development & Commerce
	PR Department of Education	state agency
	PR Department of Labor	state agency
	Fifteen Workforce Development Local Boards	workforce development agency
	Public Energy Policy Program	state energy program
	Association of Restaurant of PR Asociacion Servicios a la Niñez	non-profit entity non-profit entity

11. Targeted Industry(ies): Hospitals and medical offices, hotels, restaurants, advanced manufacturing, agriculture

12. Targeted occupations: practitioner nurses, medical assistants, medical coding and billing, IT specialist, medical equipment repairer, cybersecurity technician, energy specialists, homecare technicians, hospitality, telecommunication tower technician, industrial manufacturing technicians, machinist and other supply chain key positions, trades and agriculture.

13. List of credentials to be awarded: practitioner nurses, medical assistants, medical coding and billing, IT specialist, ybersecurity technician, residential wirer (for photovoltaic panel installers), child care specialist, homecare technicians, hospitality, telecommunication tower technician, industrial manufacturing technicians, machinist and other supply chain key positions, residential carpenter, laborers', electricians and farmers.

14. Summary of program activities: pre-apprenticeship for youth and adults, on-the-job learning, related instruction, assistance to desing RAPs through intermediaries intervention.

15. Subrecipient roles: Sponsors like employers' will provide OJL and RI in certain cases. Sponsors that are non-profit or associations will provide related instruction. Intermediaries will conect the RAPs with trainings providers and/or employers' in recruiting process for business expansion or new establishing.

16. Public Point of Contact

Name:	Jenny Mar Canon
Title:	Director Worforce Development Program
Address:	355 F.D. Roosevelt Ave
	3rd Floor
	San Juan, PR 00918
Phone number:	787-754-5504 ext. 5627
Email address:	jennymar.canon@ddec.pr.gov

