Target Registered Apprentice Populations

Youth between the ages of 16 and 21.

Project Overview

The Urban Institute and its partners are acting as intermediaries linking schools, colleges, employers, workforce development organizations, and other stakeholders to increase the quality and quantity of Registered Apprenticeship (RA) programs serving the youth. Urban assists current RA sponsors as they launch new youth-focused programs and supports new employers and organizations in a variety of in-demand occupations. Urban is creating new tools, case studies, media and events that raise the nation's consciousness of RAs.

Types of Services or Technical Assistance (TA) Provided

- Conduct broad outreach to raise awareness about RA as a talent solution
- Work with targeted businesses and industry partners so they consider and adopt RAs
- Provide RA design, registration assistance, and financial support to employers
- Provide TA and mentorship training for employers and sponsors

Key Partners

- WorkHands
- Institute for Workplace Skills and Innovation America
- Opportunity America
- Steve Hamilton (Professor Emeritus, Cornell University)
